FINDING IN THE COMPLAINT OF JANN MIRCHANDANI AGAINST ED LACHTERMAN,
CANDIDATES FOR YORKTOWN SUPERVISOR

Tarrytown, NY (March 22, 2024) - The Westchester County Fair Campaign Practices Committee met via Zoom on March 20, 2024 to hear the complaints of Jann Mirchandani (Democrat) against Deputy Supervisor Ed Lachterman (Republican), candidates for Yorktown Supervisor. Jann Mirchandani attended the Hearing along with Elliot Krowe, her campaign manager, and was represented by Richard Abbate. Ed Lachterman was represented by Jim Castro-Blanco.

COMPLAINT: Ms. Mirchandani complained that Mr. Lachterman used his official capacity as a Town Councilman to imply that he is the current Supervisor and that he used public funds for campaign purposes by sending out misleading information through official channels.

NO FINDING

Yorktown’s Supervisor Tom Diana passed away in early January. Ms. Mirchandani and Mr. Lachterman are running for Supervisor in a special election to be held April 16, 2024. In January 2024, Deputy Supervisor Mr. Lachterman assumed all the responsibilities of the Supervisor position, as required by New York State Law. The Committee found that the postings on the municipal Yorktown website and the statements in the Your Yorktown Newsletter are not campaign materials. Therefore, the Committee makes no finding.

Party representatives (ex officio): Republican Party, Democratic Party, Conservative Party, Working Families Party, Independence Party, Green Party

The purpose of the Westchester County Fair Campaign Practices Committee is to help set an acceptable standard for political discussion by offering a forum for identifying unfair campaign practices and promoting a climate in which candidates conduct honest and fair campaigns. The Committee encourages candidates to conduct campaigns openly and fairly, to focus on issues and qualifications, to refrain from dishonest and defamatory attacks, and to avoid the use of campaign materials that distort the facts.

The Committee accepts written complaints from candidates about alleged unfair campaign practices. The Committee may then hold hearings to determine whether the action complained about is indeed unfair or whether it falls within acceptable political discourse. Among other things that the Committee will consider to be an unfair campaign practice is a misstatement of a material fact or any communication that misleads the public.

The Committee has no power to compel anyone or any group to stop doing what it has found to be unfair, nor does it have the authority or power to enforce election or other laws.

If the Committee acts on a complaint, it will release its findings to inform the public. The Committee may choose not to consider a complaint; in that case, a hearing is not held and the parties to the complaint are notified.

Statement of Principles of the Committee, as stated in its Manual, is available at www.faircampaignpractices.org. The Westchester County Fair Campaign Practices Committee believes that candidates should conduct their campaigns in accordance with the following principles:

- The candidate will conduct a campaign for public office openly and fairly, focusing on issues and qualifications.
- The candidate will not use or condone any campaign material or advertisement that misstates, misrepresents or distorts material fact or any communication that misleads the public.
- The candidate will neither engage in nor be involved with false or misleading attacks upon the character of an opponent, nor in invasions of privacy unrelated to fitness for office.
- The candidate will not participate in or condone any appeal to prejudice.
- The candidate will clearly identify by name the funding source of all advertisements and campaign literature published and distributed.
- The candidate will not abuse the Westchester County Fair Campaign Practices Committee process in order to obtain political advantage. This includes, but is not limited to announcing that he/she has filed a complaint, or quoting from the Committee's Findings unless the individual Finding cited is quoted in its entirety. The Committee considers selective quotation or misrepresentation of its Findings to be an unfair campaign practice.
- The candidate will publicly repudiate materials or actions made on behalf of their candidacy that violate this Statement of Principles.
